GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS CRUMP TO YADKIN/PEE DEE RIVER BASIN ADVISORY COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Monty R. Crump of Rockingham to the Yadkin/Pee Dee River Basin Advisory Commission.

Crump is city manager for the City of Rockingham. He is area chair for Ducks Unlimited, a member of the Richmond County Economic Development Team and a founding member of the Yadkin Pee Dee Relicensing Coalition. Crump received his bachelor's degree in political science and town, city and county government from Appalachian State University.

The commission provides guidance and makes recommendations to legislative and administrative bodies for the use, stewardship and enhancement of the natural resources; provides a forum for discussion of issues affecting the river basin's resource quantity and quality; promotes communication, coordination and education among stakeholders; identifies problems and recommends appropriate solutions; undertakes studies related to water quantity, water quality and other natural resources in the river basin; and determines the optimum approach to comprehensively and collaboratively provide recommendations for integrated river management. The commission has 15 members, each serving a two-year term. The governor appoints one member.
